Driving While Intoxicated Arrest

On December 4, 2022 around 6:30 p.m., the Creve Coeur Police Department received two separate reports of a suspicious vehicle believed to be operated by an impaired driver. While checking the area an officer located the vehicle eastbound on Ladue Road at I-270. After following the white sedan a short distance on northbound I-270 and noticing the driver was failing to maintain a single lane, the Creve Coeur police officer effected a traffic stop. During the stop, the officer discovered several clues to indicate the driver was impaired. Based on the results of a field sobriety test, the officer's personal observations along with the two independent reports called in to police, the driver was arrested for Driving While Intoxicated.

The driver, who was identified as 48-year-old Daniel McLaughlin of Town and Country, MO was transported to the Creve Coeur Police Department for booking and processing.

On Monday, December 5, 2022 in-custody warrant application was made at the St. Louis County Prosecuting Attorney's Office and charges were issued for Persistent Offender of Driving While Intoxicated. McLaughlin was transferred to the St. Louis County Justice Center where he is being held on $25,000 cash only bond.

There were no injuries or property damage reported.
